

2013 Domaine Galevan
Chateauneuf du Pape St Georges

The 2013 Châteauneuf du Pape St Georges is a sensational wine, especially in the vintage. Made from 100% Grenache that spent 18 months in barrel, it offers full-bodied richness and depth, as well as impressive notes of cassis, crushed flower, asphalt and assorted wild flower-like characteristics. Possessing good acidity and a pure, elegant, layered style, it can be enjoyed today or cellared for 7-8 years.

2014 Domaine Galevan
Chateauneuf du Pape Blanc

The rich, beautifully textured 2014 Châteauneuf du Pape Blanc is a serious white that excels for its depth of fruit and layered, mouth-filling style. Made from 80% Grenache Blanc and 20% Clairette, Roussanne and Bourboulenc that was aged all in barrel, it exhibits a medium gold color as well as classic southern Rhône inspired notes of orchard fruits, brioche and honeysuckle. While no lightweight and with moderate acidity, it stays clean, refreshing and crisp with a dry finish. I like it, but wouldn't push the aging curve too much.

2014 Domaine Galevan Cotes du
Rhone Libre Expression Blanc

A ripe, textured and medium-bodied white that will pair up with heartier foods, the 2014 Côtes du Rhône Libre Expression Blanc is mostly Grenache Blanc, yet has smaller parts Roussanne and Marsanne. Giving up plenty of browned spice, buttered apple, peach and hints of honey, it stays fresh and lively on the palate while packing a solid dose of fruit. Drink it over the coming couple of years.

2014 Domaine Galevan Cotes du
Rhone Paroles de Femme

A terrific Côtes du Rhône, the 2014 Côtes du Rhône Paroles de Femme is comprised of 60% Grenache, 20% Mourvèdre, 10% Cinsault and 10% very old vine Carignan. Vinified and aged all in concrete tanks, it possesses loads of plum, licorice and roasted Provençal herbs characteristics in its medium to full-bodied, plump, mouth-filling style. It's rock solid and should be a great value.

2013 Domaine Galevan
Chateauneuf du Pape

The 2013 Châteauneuf du Pape offers lots of garrigue, spice and lavender in its core of plum and darker-styled fruits. Medium-bodied, elegant and impeccably made, it has enough depth and richness to drink nicely through 2023.

2014 Domaine Galevan
Chateauneuf du Pape

Showing the forward style of the vintage, the 2014 Châteauneuf du Pape (80% Grenache, 20% Mourvèdre) comes mostly from terroirs in the northern part of the appellation, and was aged 80% in barrel and 20% in concrete tank. Its healthy ruby color is followed by complex notes of potpourri, dried flowers, black raspberries and spice-box. Medium to full-bodied, elegant with fine tannin and lots of Provençal charm, it will drink nicely on release and have a decade or so of overall longevity.

2014 Domaine Galevan Cotes du
Rhône Villages Esprit Devin

Even better than the Paroles de Femme, the 2014 Côtes du Rhône Villages Esprit Devin offers just about everything you could want from a Côtes du Rhône. Roasted Provençal herbs, melted licorice and the essence of blackberry and cassis fruit all flow nicely to an inky colored, rich, textured, shockingly concentrated wine that has sweet tannin and a great finish. Buy this blockbuster by the case and drink it over the coming 4-5 years.

2014 Domaine Galevan
Chateauneuf du Pape St Georges

A step up over the classic cuvee, there's a scant 100 cases of the 2014 Châteauneuf du Pape St Georges. Made from 100% barrel aged Grenache from the Saint Georges lieu-dit (this is on the eastern edge of the appellation, near the village of Courthezon), it offers impressive notes of cassis, licorice, crushed violets and toasted bread. This gives way to a medium to full-bodied, elegant Châteauneuf that has high quality tannin, solid mid-palate depth and a terrific finish. It shows the vintage beautifully and will certainly be an outstanding wine.
